OF ALL THE COUNTIES OF ENGLAND THERE IS POSSIBLY NONE SO ILL PROVIDED WITH COUNTY HISTORY AS SUFFOLK, CERTAINLY NONE WHOSE PAST IS SO IMPORTANT IN THE HISTORY OF THE COUNTRY AS A WHOLE AND FOR WHICH DOCUMENTARY EVIDENCE IS IN FACT SO ABUNDANT. FAMILY HISTORY IS AN IMPORTANT PART OF LOCAL HISTORY AND HERALDRY IS A VALUABLE KEY TO THIS, SO THAT MISS CORDER'S ORDINARY OF SUFFOLK ARMS IS ESPECIALLY TO BE WELCOMED AS FURNISHING THE KEY TO ESTABLISH FACTS LESS EASILY GOT AT IN SUFFOLK THAN IN MOST COUNTIES.

THE SOCIETY OF ANTIQUARIES OF LONDON HAS HAD IN HAND FOR TWENTY FIVE YEARS PAST THE PRODUCTION OF A NEW GENERAL DICTIONARY OF BRITISH ARMS UNDER MY OWN EDITORSHIP AND THE COMPLETION OF THE MEDIAEVAL SECTION OF THAT ENORMOUS WORK NOW SEEMS NOT TOO FAR IN THE FUTURE. ACCORDINGLY WHEN SOME FEW YEARS AGO MISS CORDER CONSULTED ME AND THE THEN ASSISTANT EDITOR, MY MUCH LAMENTED FRIEND, MR HUGH STANFORD LONDON, NORFOLK HERALD EXTRAORDINARY, AS TO THE FORM A SUFFOLK ORDINARY MIGHT TAKE, WE EXPRESSED THE VIEW THAT IT SHOULD BE COMPLEMENTARY TO THE SOCIETY OF ANTIQUARIES' PROJECT. THE GENEALOGICAL DETAILS AND THE ASSESSMENT OF AUTHENTICITY OF ARMS, WHICH THE LATTER WILL GIVE ARE THEREFORE RIGHTLY OMITTED HERE AND MISS CORDER'S BOOK IS TO BE LOOKED UPON AS A KEY TO WHAT IS ACTUALLY TO BE SEEN IN SUFFOLK AND ITS MANUSCRIPT MATERIAL, THIS BEING AN ESSENTIAL PRELIMINARY TO ITS HISTORICAL AND GENEALOGICAL ANALYSIS.

THE ARRANGEMENT, AS MISS CORDER'S PREFACE ITSELF EXPLAINS, IS, HOWEVER, ON THE SAME LINES AS OUR OWN AND IS A DEVELOPED FORM OF THAT OF PAPWORTH, WHOSE MOST VALUABLE CONTRIBUTION TO HERALDRY IN THE LONG TERM THIS IS THOUGHT BY SOME TO HAVE BEEN.

THE ABSENCE OF SUCH A COUNTY HISTORY FOR SUFFOLK AS MANY OTHER COUNTIES CAN BOAST HAS MADE MISS CORDER'S TASK FAR MORE LABORIOUS AND DIFFICULT THAN IT WOULD OTHERWISE HAVE BEEN, AND READERS, WHO HAVE THEMSELVES ATTEMPTED COMPARABLE SURVEYS, WILL BEST APPRECIATE THE PERSEVERANCE AND SCHOLARSHIP SHE HAS BROUGHT TO HER TASK. VISITORS TO THE CHURCHES AND MANOR HOUSES OF THE COUNTY WILL HENCEFORWARD BE SEEN WITH CORDER IN ONE HAND AND PEVSNER IN THE OTHER, AND IT MAY WELL BE THAT WITH THE DATA DERIVED FROM THE FORMER THEY WILL NOW AND THEN FIND THEMSELVES IN A POSITION TO QUESTION SOME OF THE ANTIQUARIAN CONCLUSIONS OF THE PAST. IT IS MUCH TO BE HOPED THAT AMONG THEM WILL BE THE FUTURE COMPILERS OF A FULL SCALE HISTORY OF THE COUNTY.

ANTHONY R. WAGNER
GARTER PRINCIPAL KING OF ARMS
INTRODUCTION

An Armory is an alphabetical index of families, followed by a description of the arms borne. An Ordinary is a collection of arms arranged according to their design and their charges, with the names of the bearers attached. (This meaning of the word 'ordinary' must not of course be confused with the nine principal charges of heraldry.) Thus the main body of this book is an ordinary, but by using the index it can be converted into an armory. The object of the whole, in the words of the verbose Mr Papworth, is 'to enable the generality of persons, though but slightly acquainted with heraldry, to ascertain with facility the names of the families by whom any given coats of arms are, or have been, borne'.

A certain knowledge of heraldry has been assumed, but for those readers wishing to study further a short bibliography will be found at the end of this introduction.

WORKING METHOD

The Ordinary

The general arrangement is based on the system adopted by Papworth in his Ordinary of British Armorials, and anyone familiar with that work should find no difficulty in using this book.

Main or primary headings of sections are in strictly alphabetical order, and the following order is always observed in the dividing of each Ordinary or Charge into its various sub-sections. Taking Chevron as the example (few, if any, charges however will require the full quota of subdivisions demanded by the Chevron):

PER CHEVRON.

1 CHEVRON, Plain, Embattled, Engrailed, Indented.

1 CHEVRON and in base...
   and in chief...

   on a canton...
   on a chief...

1 CHEVRON between or within...
   and in chief...

   on a canton...
   on a chief...

Or 1 CHEVRON...
   and in chief...

   on a canton...
   on a chief...

On 1 CHEVRON between or within...
   and in chief...

   on a canton...
   on a chief...

2, 3, 5 CHEVRONS, sub-divisions (when required) as above, but not divided in the first instance into Plain, Embattled, etc.

CHEVRONNY.

Party fields, ordinaries or charges when Barry, Bendy, Chequy, Fretty, Paisy, etc., are treated as a simple field; thus the coat of Calthorpe, Chequy Or and a fesse Erm. and that of Gall, Az. a fesse Arg. fretty Az. will both be found in the section FESSE, Plain.

A coat will always be found under the principal charge, i.e. the charge occurring first in the blazon. Thus the coat of Coleman of Parham, Sa. an estoile and a canton Arg. will be found under 1 ESTOILE AND IN CHIEF... Cantons. That of Hunt of Walsham-le-Willows, Az. on a bend between two water bougets Or, three leopards’ faces Gu. will be found under ON 1 BEND BETWEEN OR WITHIN... Bougets.
Charges ‘over all’ are treated as secondary charges and will be found in the section demanded by the principal charge, e.g. the coat of Lany, Arg. an escutcheon Gu., over all a bend Sa. will be found under I ESCUTCHEON. An exception to this rule has been made in the section BEAST . . . 1 LION where, owing to the number of entries, the charge has been severally sub-divided, one of the divisions being 1 LION Rampant charged over all.

Subsidiary charges (those placed upon another ordinary or charge) are put in both alphabetical and numerical order in their section, thus under On 1 CHEVRON between or within . . . Crosses, the subsidiary charges will be found to be Annulet, Birds, Fleurs-de-lis, 5-Foils, Heads, Mullets.

Billets, Crosses, Fleurs-de-lis, etc., when semy, or strewn on a field (billety, crussily, fleury, etc.) are treated as a simple field, e.g. the coat of Osborne, Sa. billety and a griffin segreant Or will be found in the section MONSTER . . . 1 GRIFFIN. But if they occur as subsidiary charges on an ordinary or charge they are treated accordingly; thus the coat of Sampson, Gu. on a cross Arg. thirteen billets (or billety) Sa. will be found in the section On 1 CROSS . . . Billets.

Gutties will be found with the addition of the appropriate tincture; the terms gutty d’eau, d’or, de poix, etc. have not been used.

Roundels will be found under that heading with their appropriate tincture, e.g. ROUNDELS ARGENT, AZURE, etc. The one exception is the Bezant which will be found under ROUNDEL, but retains its distinctive name. In the blazons the various terms given for these charges by the sources have been retained, e.g. Hurts, Ogresses, Plates, Torteaux, etc.

The section BEAST . . . 1 LION, owing to its size, has been sub-divided into the following: DEMI-LION, LION Couchant, Passant, Passant Guardant, Rampant, Rampant charged over all, Rampant crowned, Rampant collared, Rampant tail forked, Rampant double tailed, Rampant Guardant, Rampant Reguardant, Salient. A number of coats appear in more than one subdivision, e.g. the coat of Cromwell of Freckenham, Az. a lion ramp. tail forked Arg. crowned Or will be found under both LION Rampant crowned and LION Rampant tail forked.

The section 1 CROSS, owing to its size, has been sub-divided into the following: CROSS, Plain, Engrailed, All others. The last division has been used owing to the difficulty of determining precisely which variety of cross was intended by a source, for instance in several cases a blazoned cross was found to differ from the usual present-day naming of the charge as shown in an accompanying illustration. In fact the whole question of the naming of crosses is so fraught with danger, leading to much disagreement among experts, that I approached this section with a great deal of trepidation, finally deciding to allow the sources to speak for themselves.

The section 1 SALTIRE has been given the same sub-divisions as the Cross, for much the same reason, although not to be compared in size.

Beasts, Birds, Fishes, Monsters, etc. are all kept together in their kind, each type with its sub-divisions in one place. Thus, under the main section heading BEAST, Deer appear as:

1 DEER.
1 DEER and in chief . . . on a canton . . .
1 DEER between or within . . .
2 DEER.
3 DEER.
3 DEER and in chief . . . on a chief . . .
3 DEER between or within . . .

3, 4 and 5-Foils have been kept together (as in Papworth) to avoid the necessity of searching through the book for Trefoils, Quatrefoils and Cinquefoils.

Foils, Mullets, etc., whether pierced or unpierced, have been blazoned together, except in the case of their being pierced of a different tincture from the field, when they have been given a separate entry.

Flaunches have been entered in two sections, under their own name and also in the section relating to the charge or charges borne between them. Frequently I have found flaunches to be easily recognizable on old and faded coats while the remaining charges have been indistinguishable.
Quarterly coats when stated to be quartering occupy the 1st and 4th quarters of the shield, and when stated to be quartered by occupy the 2nd and 3rd quarters.

Untinctured coats are placed at the beginning of their section, and untinctured party fields at the beginning of the appropriate part of the section.

Three identical charges are always assumed to be placed 2.1., and six charges to be placed 3.2.1. unless otherwise blazoned.

Differences, where known to be such have, as a general rule, been omitted. However, the Ufford coats with their differences, owing to their particular interest, have been included but put together in the section 1 CROSS, Engrailed.

Where a date is given, it is the earliest quoted by any source for residence in Suffolk. Some will be found to be pre-heraldry, e.g. temp. Will. 1. or Will. 2., but have been included as evidence of the antiquity of the family concerned. In general, dates have been given only for pre-Tudor coats.

Titles are given, because some families are only thus referred to by sources, and also to assist in research on pedigrees or coats. It must be borne in mind however that all titles are not necessarily applicable to Suffolk, and that, as in the case of dates, some are pre-heraldry.

Where the words 'no arms given' appear within square brackets, information not otherwise known, e.g. place of residence or whereabouts of a pedigree, is given by the source although no armorial information is given.

The portions of blazons contained within round brackets are details not given by all the sources quoted.

Punctuation in blazoning is not always consistent, and the terms 'of the field', 'of the second', etc. have not been used, the tincture being repeated where necessary. In each case clarity was the main objective.

Editorial comment is contained within square brackets.

Every effort has been made to keep the number of mistakes to a minimum, but, in a work of this type, involving so much transcription, it is inevitable that some will have crept in.

Sources

Sources are given in chronological order.

Secondary sources, quoted by the primary source, appear within round brackets.

An asterisk (*) denotes some form of illustration of a coat.

Some coats taken from early sources such as the Caerlaverock Poem, Parliamentary Roll, etc. did not necessarily relate to Suffolk at the time at which the source was compiled, but are included as evidence of the antiquity of the coats.

Papworth's Ordinary has not been exhaustively searched, but used only as a corroborative source or where an incomplete or unlikely blazon has been given by another source.

Where a source contains an armorial index or is compiled in alphabetical order, page numbers have been omitted, as in the case of Copinger where the volume number only is given.

Owing to the present high cost of printing much interesting material and additional information given in sources has had to be omitted. Wherever possible therefore, reference should be made to the sources.

Sir Anthony Wagner's Catalogue of English Medieval Rolls of Arms is essential reading for anyone wishing a thorough knowledge of this fundamental group.

The Index

All spellings of names given in the Ordinary will be found in the Index, however remote from the normal.

Figures within round brackets after the column reference denote the number of entries for the name in the column.
NOTES ON THE SOURCES

The earliest source quoted in this book is Glover's Roll, c. 1255. Then follow, among others, the Caerlaverock Poem of 1300; the Parliamentary Roll, c. 1312; the Norfolk and Suffolk Roll, c. 1400 and the Suffolk section of the Military Roll, c. 1480. Apart from Rolls, the only other pre-Tudor source is Friar Brackley's book, c. 1440-60, many of whose 73 entries however belong more properly to Norfolk.

The Visitations come next in chronological order, and cover the period 1561-1668; although compiled by the Kings of Arms or their deputies, they are not always entirely reliable. Harl. MS. 772, of about 1565, is a most profitable source, containing many coats with their quarterings in trick, but unfortunately a large proportion are un-named and so could not be quoted. The Extended Parliamentary Roll, compiled about 1580, is interesting in addition to its usefulness as it later belonged to Henry Wingfield of Crowfield Hall, a collector of heraldic items, who was to lend books to several Suffolk armorists.

A highly important group of local scholars flourished during the seventeenth century: Reyce, Golté, Blois, Fairfax and Gipps were all recording Suffolk arms during the period 1618-1700. Reyce and Gipps do not name their sources, but the other three frequently quote mutual ones, and almost certainly knew of each other's collections. All three refer to manuscripts compiled by Leverland; Golté and Fairfax studied the Dandy pedigree then kept at Combs Hall (now in Ipswich Record Office), and also the books of Tyllotson: Blois and Fairfax used manuscripts of Revett and the Candlers (the latter now among the Tanner MSS. in the Bodleian). Golté and Fairfax borrowed books and manuscripts from Henry Wingfield: and the owner of the, apparently contemporary, hand which added considerable detail to Golté obviously knew well the glass in William Blois's house at Grundisburgh. Immediately preceding this group, and quoted so much by them, were Leverland, Tyllotson, Stavely, Revett, Clopton and Mawe. With the exception of one volume of Tyllotson's church notes now in the library of the Society of Antiquaries, and a copy made by him in 1620 of a Peerage compiled by Clarenceux Cooke (a different one from that transcribed again by Fairfax, but probably the one referred to by Golté), which is now in my possession, all the work of these sources has, to the best of my knowledge, been lost.

The eighteenth century was a bleak period and, apart from topographical works containing arms, produced only Bokenham, who chose frequently to disagree with the usually accepted versions of coats, and Starpe, the herald painter, who gave few new ones.

The nineteenth century yielded the greatest single collection of county coats, contained in David Elisha Davy's Armory of Suffolk. Over 3,600 entries are given, many of them contemporary and unique, evidently the results of his own observation as he often notes their being 'from a carriage' or 'on a hatchment'. Davy included the collection of Henry Jermyn in his own work, and also took many coats from the notes of the Rev. Frederick Turner Barnwell, another zealous collector of the time, but whose work, with the exception of a few pages of manuscript notes in my possession and a slim volume of miscellanea in Bury Record Office, I have been unable to trace. Davy's work is most reliable: his errors are usually minor ones of transcription and may be easily recognized, but unfortunately he does not always give his sources.
Suckling and Page, in their histories of Suffolk, both give many coats, Suckling's apparently the result of personal observation; while Page states, inadequately, that his references were taken from various Peerages, Baronetages and 'other writers on heraldry'.

The Proceedings of the Suffolk Institute of Archaeology were first published in 1848, followed in 1864 by East Anglian Notes and Queries, two most valuable sources which give examples of then existing hatchments, glass and monumental emblazonry, some of which have vanished or become indecipherable during the last hundred years. The long series of Miscellanea Genealogica et Heraldica began in 1868, a rich source of grants and confirmations of arms. Howard and Crisp's Visitation of England and Wales is of value for coats and especially for pedigrees. The East Anglian Miscellany gives many heraldic references, including numbers of coats in private houses. Muskett is exemplary for the families with which he deals in his Suffolk Manorial Families; while Copinger, who lists many coats in his Manors of Suffolk, not always accurately, is particularly useful in establishing the period of their association with specific localities.

A great East Anglian antiquary at work at the end of the last century and well into the present one was the Rev. Edmund Farrer, whose monumental 3 volume Church Heraldry of Norfolk is indispensable for that County. He produced a tremendous amount of material on arms, genealogy, brasses, portraits and seals; and compiled an exceedingly useful manuscript Church Heraldry of Suffolk (now in Ipswich Reference Library), which unfortunately was never printed. His edition of the difficult Blois armory however, published in his old age, is a great disappointment containing a high proportion of errors, many of them due to bad or neglected proof reading.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

I wish to express my gratitude to Sir Anthony Wagner, K.C.V.O., D.LITT., F.S.A., Garter Principal King of Arms, who has always answered my questions with unfailing kindness and whose contribution of a Foreword is the final example of his interest, which has been of great importance to me since I first began this book.

To Leslie Dow, F.S.A., who originally suggested to me the idea of an ordinary of Suffolk arms, and who has been a constant source of encouragement, a true counsellor and critic during the years of its compilation.

To T. D. Tremlett, M.A., Assistant Secretary of the Society of Antiquaries of London, for his great kindness in allowing me access to the magnificent library of the Society at Burlington House.

To the late Hugh Stanford London, F.S.A., Norfolk Herald Extraordinary, who, from his great knowledge and love of heraldry, did all he could to help me during the few years I knew him before his death.

To the Council of the Suffolk Records Society for making the publication of this book a possibility.

To the Trustees of the Marc Fitch Fund for their most generous grant in aid.

To the Staff of Messrs W. S. Cowell Ltd for their unfailing courtesy and consideration.

To Joan Alderton, who typed my manuscript with painstaking accuracy.

Golding.

Goltz.
MS. Ordinary of Arms on 266 pages, bound in contemporary limp vellum. 2,376 emblazoned coats, nine on a page, with a strong East Suffolk bias. The title page is missing and the MS. commences at p.3. Compiled c. 1655, with additions in other hands up to 1660 – one of which compiled the index and noted that many of the coats were ‘in Preston Church’, ‘in Mr. Bloys his house’, etc. The first recorded owner of the MS., whose name is written on the fly-leaf as ‘Mr. Gouter of Donnington’, was thought by Leslie Dow and the late Sir John Cullum, Bart., to be either Samuel Goltz, Rector of Dennington 1665–83, or his son Richard Goltz, Rector there 1697–1723. For this reason, and also because the only crest given in the MS. is that of Goltz, I have named the book \textit{Goltz’s Ordinary}. Formerly in the collection of the late Edward Elershirst, M.S., F.R.C.S., of Ipswich, this MS. is now in my possession.

To which is added in another hand, ‘these lived in ye tyme of E.I. and scarce any of whom knighted before’. The list, however, appears to be a copy of the Suffolk section of the Parliamentary Roll; there are some slight variations in blazon, a number of names are transposed and one extra name, that of Sir Hubert Jerneyham, is given at the end.

REPORT OF THE COUNCIL FOR 1963-64

At the 30th September, 1964, membership stood at 339, including 5 Honorary and 4 Life members. This represents a net increase of 3 on the previous year.

Casual sales between the 1st October, 1963 and the 30th September, 1964 were as follows:

John Constable's Correspondence II, Early Friends and Maria Bicknell (Mrs. Constable), Volume VI of the Society's publications, edited by Mr. R. B. Beckett, was published at the Society's Annual General Meeting held on the 26th November, 1964, in the Wolsey Art Gallery, Christchurch Mansion, Ipswich. It was introduced by Sir Kenneth Clark, K.C.B., C.H., F.B.A. a former distinguished Director of the National Gallery, who said that "Everyone interested in English art needs this new edition . . . It is a masterpiece of editing". Since its publication, the book has been very well received by reviewers and the Council have decided to go ahead with plans for publishing the remainder of the Correspondence over a period, provided that the necessary funds can be found. Every endeavour will be made, however, to ensure a proper balance by including volumes such as the Dictionary of Suffolk Arms, edited by Miss Joan Corder, which will be published as Volume VII, and the Ipswich Poor Law Records, edited by Mr. John Webb, which will be ready for the press very shortly.

The Accounts for the year ending the 30th September, 1964, which are presented subject to audit, show that the finances of the Society continue on a sound footing. Owing to its late appearance, the costs of Volume VI do not appear in these accounts but those of Volume V are included. To date, the costs of Volume VI have amounted to £2,270, of which £1,500 have been covered by grants from the Pilgrim Trust, the British Academy, and the Editor, Mr. Beckett, to all of whom the Council is greatly indebted. The Society's share of the cost amounts to some £770, which has largely been covered by subscriptions, the balance being covered by income from casual sales. At the same time, the Council are aware of the need to recruit more members if they are to maintain and improve the Society's publications and are actively considering possible measures. They hope also that members themselves will do what they can to encourage others to join the Society.

The Honorary Secretary, Mr. Derek Charman, was absent in Kenya during the year and the Council is much indebted to Mr. Norman Scarfe, who took on the work of Acting Honorary Secretary in addition to his work as Honorary General Editor. The Council would also like to express their appreciation of the work of the staff of the Ipswich and East Suffolk Records Office, who provide the Society's secretariat.

The Council regret to report that Mr. Michael Bendix, who was until recently the Society's Honorary Treasurer, has asked to resign from the Council owing to pressure of business. The Council will be very sorry to lose Mr. Bendix, whose advice on financial matters has always been of the utmost value to the Society and was instrumental in building the present sound financial situation. His resignation will leave two vacancies on the Council and the following other Council members, who are all eligible for re-election, are due to resign at the Annual General Meeting:

Mr. J. Campbell
Mrs. J. Rowe
Mr. M. P. Statham
